

MILITARY DISCHARGES

To get your DD214 military discharge document recorded, make sure that it has an original signature.

Take this document to the Veterans Service office during office hours and they will make sure we get it recorded.

You can bring a certified copy of your DD214 from another county or from the Wisconsin Department of Veteran's Affairs and have it recorded with your local register of deeds for your convenience as well. Check in with the Veterans Service office to get it recorded.

To get a certified copy of your DD214 military discharge document, which was recorded earlier with the La Crosse County Register of Deeds, you would request your DD214 through the La Crosse County Veteran's Service Office at 212 6th Street North, room 1600. You may contact their office at (608) 785-9719. After stopping at the Veterans office they will give you an authorization form which you bring to the Register of Deeds office, 212 6th Street North, room 1400, present your picture ID and they will prepare the certified copy free of charge.
